1.1. Examining Case Study

The given mock case study on Moodle has a similar structure to the ones provided in Week 1. The questions in the quiz will span all case studies available for choice so it is crucial to read all case studies ahead of the quiz.

Activity

- Using the mock case study on Moodle, think about the following for it:
  - FRs and NFRs
  - Ethical and legal issues
  - Risks
  - Use cases and actors

section 2

PRACTICE AND PEER REVIEW

---

2.1. Examine content and questions

Given the mock quiz on Moodle, use the case study and the content of weeks 1-3 as practice.

Activity

- Review lecture slides of week 1, 2 and 3 before opening the mock quiz.
- Have the FRs, NFRs,..etc drafted from the previous exercises handy before opening the mock quiz.
- Attempt the mock quiz with respect to the mock case study.

2.2. Peer review against answers

It is important to know if your answers are wrong why they are wrong. Usually the issue is an overlooked concept or misunderstanding of a definition.

Activity

- For the provided solutions to the mock questions, discuss with your peers and tutor:
  - If your answers are wrong why they are wrong.
  - Keep notes of your common mistakes to use during the quiz

Thank You!
